Aeon Next Delivery Co., Ltd.

Chiba Prefectural Police and Aeon Next Delivery Co. signed Agreement on Community Safety and Security

Chiba Prefectural Police (Director of Community Safety: Masatoshi Uchikawa, Director of Transportation: Kenji Kinebuchi, Director of Security: Fumiyo Nara) and Aeon Next Delivery (President: Tomohiro Nozawa) signed today an Agreement on Safety and Security to create a safe and secure community free from traffic accidents and crime.

This Agreement is to utilize the business characteristics of Aeon Next Delivery to conduct traffic safety awareness activities, such as placing stickers that say Promoting the Campaign to Eliminate Drunk Driving on their delivery vehicles.

In addition, their drivers will watch over children during delivery, protect people during emergencies, proactively report incidents, accidents, and suspicious persons when they see them, and prevent damage from crimes by providing reminders and conducting public relations activities to prevent damage from special frauds at the time of product delivery. Furthermore, in the event of a disaster, the company will also cooperate in disaster response activities, for example, by accepting police vehicles to their distribution center in Honda.

With the signing of this Agreement, Aeon Next Delivery will actively contribute to the prosperity of the region and its communities by promoting the fulfilling lifestyles of local residents.
